Florida Vocational Institute is accredited by the Council on Occupational Education (COE), a national accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education and licensed by the Florida Department of Education Commission for Independent Education (CIE).

It is required by the U.S. Department of Education that Florida Vocational Institute reports and discloses specific information about its school's programs in a clear, prominent, user-friendly, and easily understood manner. The intent of the requirement is to enable students to make an informed choice about a program of study. To this end, Florida Vocational Institute will provide the following information:

Who is a first-time student?

A first-time student is someone who has had no prior postsecondary experience before enrolling at Florida Vocational Institute.

Who is considered a completed student? Who is considered a graduate?

A "completer" is a student who is no longer enrolled at Florida Vocational Institute and has either completed the time allowed or has completed the graduation requirements for their medical field program. A completer may also be classified as a "graduate" if they meet all of the following criteria:

- Has successfully passed all required courses in the program.
- Has satisfied all other requirements for graduation such as payment of tuition.
- Has received the appropriate credentials.
- Ceased enrollment in the program at the institution.

3. Graduation Rate

How are graduation rates calculated?

Graduation rates are calculated using the Student Right-to-Know formula in order to comply with U.S. Department of Education requirements. These statistics track all first-time, full-time diploma seeking students who began school during the start date range and reached program completion within the normal time period or normal program length. The graduation rate is the percentage of first-time, full-time students who have completed their program within the normal time period or normal program length.

The graduation rate for the Medical Assistant program is 74%, Nursing Assistant/ Home Health Aide is 100%, and the graduation rate for the Patient Care Technician program is 87%

4. Placement Rate

What is the placement rate for graduates of your institution?

Placement rates vary depending on the methods of compiling, calculating, and reporting of data by the regulatory agency or institution. Placement rates are intended to provide information on the number of students who have obtained employment in their field of study after graduation. The rates disclosed below reflect historical outcomes and should not be relied on by anyone as an implicit or explicit representation or promise of future outcomes or employability for any student following completion of a program of study at Florida Vocational Institute. Numerous individual and market factors affect a graduate's ability to secure employment in his/her field or in a related field after graduation, and the institution has little or no control over many of these factors. Therefore, Florida Vocational Institute cannot and does not guarantee employment or estimate the likelihood of securing employment upon graduation for any student.

The placement rate for the Medical Assistant program is 72% , Nursing Assistant/ Home Health Aide is 76%, and the placement rate for the Patient Care Technician program is 71%

This rate was calculated by internal quality monitoring using data between July 1, 2014 and June 30, 2015.

	Medical Assistant	Nursing Assistant	Patient Care Technician
Graduation Rate:	74%	100%	87%
Placement Rate:	72%	76%	71%
